ABOUT

I am a self-taught designer with over 11 years of experience in traditional graphic and digital design. I help businesses solve complex problems through a user-centered design approach. I'm currently looking for a new role in UX/UI design where I can expand on my studies, learn and add value.

Keen cyclist, design lover and self-proclaimed coffee snob.

SKILLS

- UX/UI Design
- Digital Design
- Web design
- Wordpress
- Branding
- Packaging

EXPERIENCE

October 2015 -
Current

Gavster Design - Owner/Creative Director

Having worked with some of the worlds leading retail and event brands, I am no stranger to the fast-paced and high pressured work environments.

I have many years of experience in both graphic and digital design. I thrive on working in a collaborative team and a role in a digital design agency would suit my skill set best. I'm very comfortable with client facing, managing projects and team members.
Your creative thinker, coffee drinker!
